Mueller

County Commissioners: Mark Christensen and Robert Maul

Museum Staff: Director Robert Henning and Stephan Zacharias

C. Quarterly Meeting of the Campbell County Commissioners and Rockpile Museum Board

I. Temporary Painting Storage Space and Art Racks

DISCUSSION: President Daly stressed the importance of keeping the temporary storage in the Courthouse Annex which was seen by Daly, Henning, and Lowell. The museum staff needs to order racks and prepare the space. Any further changes in location would be detrimental to their work.

II. One-Year Moratorium on Acceptance of All Materials into the Rockpile Museum
Collections

DISCUSSION: Holyoak asked when we could expect a new museum to which Christensen replied that although oil tax proceeds are better than coal, now is not a good time to seek funds from the commissioners. Daly mentioned the “Moratorium” letter written by the board due to no more space to store artifacts. Cossitt Mueller said that collection items on tonight’s agenda were received prior to letter being written. Christensen mentioned 3-D digitizing of incoming items to which Henning said that Photographing & scanning is being done by staff and volunteers now.

III. 1% Funding for Veterans’ Program

DISCUSSION: Daly mentioned that museum does not have a Veterans’ Program at the moment nor do they have the staff available to launch one. Maul recalled that the program was Commissioner Shelstad’s idea at last Quarterly Meeting. Palmer mentioned that this funding was a partnership possibility with the library for example. Christensen said that the commissioners’ intention was to initiate a program and get a process started. Holyoak mentioned that a similar project at Rutgers University had a $250,000 budget.

IV. Upcoming Events and Programs

DISCUSSION: Henning mentioned author Hedren would speak on June 27 about his new book, “Rosebud: June 17, 1876”. Zacharias explained that his Saturday museum programs at 11 am and 2 pm were cultural interactions. He is using living history as a tool and will feature stories of the Powder River Basin. On June 15, the Archibald Homestead will be featured. The audience is part of the show. Program materials are similar for each of the 11 & 2 shows; however, the result may vary.
