CAMPBELL COUNTY BELL NOB GOLF COURSE UPDATE

Gillette, WY, April 3, 2020 – The Bell Nob Golf Course will open beginning Monday, April 6, 2020 weather permitting, per Campbell County Resolution 2032.2 approved by the Board of Commissioners on March 31, 2020.

The following safety procedures and protocols will be implemented at the golf course include:

- Tee times will begin at 9:00 am each day and as the days get longer, start times will be adjusted. Tee times will be spread out to 20 minutes.
- There will no play ahead of the first scheduled Tee Time.
- The number of individuals on the driving range or putting greens will be limited based on social distance recommendations.
- Putting cups will be adjusted for minimal exposure on the course.
- Bunker rakes and ball washers will be removed from the course.
- Drinking fountains will not be turned on.
- Score cards and pencils will be removed on hole 1 and 10. Score cards will be placed in each of the golf cars.
- No car season passes will be sold.
- Golfers are responsible for cleaning trash from their golf car. Bell Nob staff will disinfect and clean the cars.
- Only one person per car.
- Portable toilets are open on the course.
- Outside restrooms will be open and cleaned throughout the day.

Pro Shop and Clubhouse

- Closed to public, all sales will be through a service window at the Pro Shop and the Clubhouse.
